*Town has a TRADITIONAL CUSTOM CLOTHING worn designed from past and still worn today!

THE HISTORY OF CZECH
CURRENT PRESENTS ITSELF FROM THE PAST

In Czechoslovakia (Czech) the Czech traditional dress of the other country have a village (town) uniform dress worn by each town. (Present day and Past).

Note: The traditional uniform dress is also referred to as the National Costumes worn known as the Kroj.

★THE TOWN OF WILBER, NEBRASKA was considered by the settlers from Czech a new town. The new settlement of a new town meant a new dress different from the other villages of Czech they came from. The Czech past and current traditions meant a new uniform dress showing where they came from.

★The Wilber town in Nebraska has an American Czech traditional dress- since the Czech's moved to America the tradition was to take on a new dress or make a new dress to show where they lived. The town was established in 1873 and the town traditional American Czech dress showing where they live still lives. Many of the settlers wore the traditional dress for a new country that represents a new town are today still wearing the new traditional dress of Wilber. But, mostly worn today for holidays, weddings, funerals, dances at festival time and special celebrations.

WILBER NEBRASKA ITS THE CZECH OF AMERICA IN CHECK WITH AMERICA! Traditions!

In America the Czechs brought with the traditions an old country to establish a new town that resulted in a new uniform traditional dress for a new town called Wilber in Nebraska. But, the traditional dress also was accompanied with other traditions for a new country, a new dress and the traditional customs of entertainment in toys for children and adults, food with recipes, traditions for celebrations, dance, music, and family traditions of heritage, beautiful designed furniture, farm equipment, traditional designed daily used products.

The Czech Family Heritage Tradition was a family's hair wreath of the family delicately weaved from combed hair to preserve the life of a family and displayed in frames upon the wall.

To a Czechoslovakia in Czech, when it came to who is single or who was married?

The head dress told for the asking from the other country. A carried over tradition that the wreath of flowers, wreath of head band of cloth meant that the lady was single and available. Marriage from the traditional country, the head dress changed to a bonnet or a scarf that covered the hair. Some beautifully beaded in cloth of the bonnet and the wreath head dress.

Kroj

Kroj:

The traditional dress for man, lady, child and baby is called Kroj. The designs of the Kroj (traditional clothing) are brightly colorful primary colors of flowers and bead work added and handmade with hand embroidered designs from the ladies of each of the villages.

The lady and girl's Kroj: Beautiful designs are displayed on the lady's uniform shoulder sides of the bloused shirt that covers most of the skirt worn underneath. Then an a vest that is brightly embroidered is added for additional decoration to accent the upper portion of the body to give the garment form of the body's natural curves defining a lady's chest area of the Kroj. Lady's Kroj usually had some sort of puffed rounded full sleeves (not shoulders) that were stuff or corded with fabric with a full shirt in the round with length mid-drift of the shins. The shirt was full but did not use a hoop underneath. A straight lain skirt garment in length. Many that have the bloused dress over the skirt had brightly designed embroidery around the hemmed bottoms that could extend from the hem 12" to 16" into the shirted area. Some contained bands of embroidery to accent the skirt.

CHRISTMAS IN AMERICA TOWN WITH CZECH TRADITIONS:

The Czech Days of Christmas

*December 4th Barborky or Saint Barbara to start the holiday origin of Czech Republic. A branch is cut at the first light from a cherry tree that was 10 yrs old. Then taken to a house of an unmarried girl, put in a vase. If it the sprig blooms on Christmas Eve thee girl would find a husband in the following year. If it blooms earlier, date of wedding brought forward by one month for every day in which it bloomed ahead of time.

*December 5th Saint Nicholas (Mikuláš) Day

Three costumed characters walk the streets, St Nicholas ((Mikuláš), the Angel (anděl) who represents the Good, and the Devil (čert) represents evil. All three stop children asking them if they'd been good in the past year. The child can say yes, sing a song, recite a poem and the Angel hands out candy. With the telling that the bad kids would be put in the Devil's sack and taken to hell, or would only receive a sack of potatoes or coal instead of candy. The tradition is supposedly based on 4th century Greek bishop named Nicholas who is said to have left money as a gift on the windowsill of three poor girls to enable them to get married.

*December 24, Christmas Eve (Štědrý den) Day

In Czech name literally means 'Generous Day'. Traditionally one is suppose to fast all day before dinner so they can see zlaté prasátko, the golden piglet on the wall before dinner. A good sign of fortune. Dinner is served after sunset and not before the first star comes out at night. Served is carp, potato salad, mushroom, sauerkraut or fish soup. Carp maybe left alive prior day by putting in the bathtub until ready for cooking. Dessert maybe apple strudel and traditional Christmas bread called vánočka. It's the baby Jesus (Ježíšek) that brings the children presents on that day. Children leave the room. When they hear the tinkle of bells being rang the baby Jesus arrived and left them presents. Bells rang by the parents. Midnight church service or Mass (půlnocní mše) at local church maybe attended.

*December 25th Christmas Day (Boží hod vánoční)

Christmas celebrations continue on Christmas Day (Boží hod vánoční) days center around family traditions depending on region family is from of family visits, festive lunches and dinner.

*December 26th St. Stephen's Day (Sv. Štěphán)

The day is center around traditional family depending on region also participates in festive lunches and a dinner. The tradition has it that roast turkey, goose or duck is served.

CHRISTMAS IN AMERICA TOWN WITH CZECH TRADITIONS

Holiday Traditions and Customs: Christmas!

Czech Christmas includes:

The Floating of Walnut Shells (a fortune telling of those that participate) little boats made out of empty walnuts by each of the family, each person in the family places the a little burning candle into a shell then sets the to float in a bowl of water. If the shell sinks while it crosses the bowl bad luck it brings its owner bad luck. If the boat makes it across without sinking, its owner will live a long and healthy life.

The Cutting of the Apple after dinner (fortune telling of the outcome for the next Christmas upon the family) After Christmas dinner and apple is cut at the table in the middle across the belly of the apple. Both halves are shown to everyone around the table. If the core is shaped like a star, good fortune, everyone will get together next year. If the shape is a four pointed cross it's a bad omen and means that someone at the table will fall ill or die within a year.

The Pouring of Lead (fortune telling of the person that melts the lead and pours it into water – the shape defines the destiny),

The Fish Scales (a good luck charm) Scales of fish put under the plate of the Christmas dinner) and under the table cloth to bring great wealth to the house. Carrying a fish scale in a wallet all year will ensure that money will not run out.

The Shoe over Your Shoulder (fortune telling, on Christmas Eve), practiced by unmarried Czech women to predict their relationship status for the upcoming year. Stand with the back to your door and toss one of your shoes over your shoulder. If it lands with the toe facing the door it means the young lady will get married within the year. If it land with the heel/facing the door the young lady is in for another year as a single person.

The Christmas Pickle (scavenger hunt) To get an extra present, the person that finds the pickle-shaped ornament or pickle that was hid on Christmas morning. (Note: presents are usually opened on Christmas Eve).

The Golden Pig (an after dinner walk searching for the zlaté prasátko, golden pig) But, on Christmas Eve those that fast all day and were able to hold off on all of the goodies until that evening of Christmas Eve will see a golden pig in the evening.

Holiday Traditions and Customs: Christmas!

Czech Christmas Dinner Superstitions:

Fortune Telling Traditions

- *No one should sit with his or her back to the door
- *The table should be set for an even number for guests. Odd numbers bring bad luck or death. An extra plate can be used to even out the number. An extra plate should be in case of an unexpected guest or person in need that may arrive at the house at dinnertime.
- *No one should ever get up from the table before they are finished with their meal. It brings bad luck and death in the family. Everyone would rise from the at the exact same time when departing It was believed that the first person to leave the table by themselves would die in the coming year.
- *Christmas dinner should consist of nine course meal, soup, bread with honey, carp potato salad, fruit dessert (apple strudel or Christmas bread called vánočka), and other foods.
- *No alcohol should be served on Christmas Eve.
- *Everyone should finish their dinner on their plate and leave nothing.
- *Table legs would be tied with rope to protect the home from thieves in the new year.
- *Any leftovers from dinner (fish bones, etc.) should be buried around the trees to ensure they will bear lots of fruit.
- *All household animals should be fed after dinner so that no one goes hungry on Christmas Eve.
