The Storm Approaching in Hartford City, Indiana on July 3, 2017

By Carol Lee Brunk, www.sightwordsataglance.com

These pictures were taken of the storm brewing around the court house on my way back to a church where I tented for a 3 day stay during the 4th of July holiday celebration in 2017 just before it rained.

I worked on the PreReader Volume 8 'The Toy Box' in the church on my stay. The volume was published later that year on amazon.com
