'The Rich Man' got better over time with Matthew, Mark, Luke and John – Belief that the Parable is not parable but contains only parable when it comes to the eye and camel.

When God said, "The poor shall inherit the earth", time had an adjustment of interpretation and lack of during and over the years of life on earth. God had gave the Rich the advantage in life. Lack of knowledge in one area of understanding had Jesus use his sense of sarcastic humor to make something that should not have resulted in a depressed man walking away but a man on a journey to continue further in life with the knowledge of passing on knowledge in another direction to many that are poor to inherit the earth as in a better life-meaning the poor had a chance get a home of a type over their heads, food on the table and the education they need to succeed here on earth. As the knowledge of the rich man was passed in certain ways to help the poor inherit the earth for a better way of life. The rich redeems itself over years in that the majority educated themselves with a better understanding of what the passage really meant as time advances forward. Not all but many succeed in a different direction to achieve a better life for a lot more than recorded in the past. The rich helped the poor to inherit the earth – not all but many through a strong belief for many in religions. Interpretation of the bible to update itself in time is under constant review for many (Christians, Jews and Muslims as well other off branches). The searching is not always directly quoted for you to understand due to the era in time you are living. The bible has stories that lack the scientific terminology but hints of scientific evidence as in the example in the Old Testament with Moses after the release from bondage then to the punishment for evil bad behavior of the 40 years wandering is God's feeding of the Mana with the warning to the Hebrew people to not eat the mana after a certain time due to disease was actually teaching people about spoiled food and Sala manila.

Christianity passages of the bible with Jesus are constantly being interrupted and interpreted My belief is that Jesus really encountered the 'The Rich Young Man' and Jesus had a dry sense of humor of sarcastic tone was evident in the passage that intertwined with a mixture of anger of a thought process (Why do you ask a stupid question or look further you have already are on the right journey, direction you do not need to really give everything away, you are educated look take the direction in a further direction). The only parable in the value of the statement was 'I tell you the truth, it is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' Because the Rich man in this time period lacked knowledge to help or to be able to help those in the civilization they lived in without great cost due of thieves, power and power over throws. The sarcasm of 'Sell everything you have and follow me,' would have been the verbatim at the time would have happened only in the event that if only one took the path further chances of going poor increase due to the lack of civilization with in the civilization. Jesus really did not want the Rich man to actually lose everything his anger shown in the parable statement of verbatim at the time. Jesus was really looking for the rich man to conquer for all to inherit the earth in wealth with instructing the poor at a better way of life in educating them to succeed in an honorable law (the law at the time (past) the 10 Commandments to the present of the United States the Constitution, Bill of Rights (future) as the result) bidding the way. The Rich man did the first part in his time of following the Ten Commandments verbatim noted to Jesus in the first part of the discussion in the passages of Matthew, Mark and Luke.
